

July 1, 2014

Prestige Flag files suit in the Southern District against Standard Golf for Smarty 5 patent infringement

Prestige filed a patent infringement suit in Federal court in the Southern District against Standard Golf for alleged patent infringement of its' Smarty 5 reflector. The suit alleges that Standard's new reflector infringes on Prestige Flags US Patent D564,405.

"Today, we filed suit in Federal court against Standard Golf to protect our intellectual property rights", said Mike Roberts, CEO of Prestige Flag.

"We will vigorously defend any and all attempts of what we believe to be patent infringement of our intellectual property".

Prestige Flag